MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Request for CIA Official as Guest Speaker

This confirms my conversation with [ ] and STATINTL of his willingness to speak to the Legal-Intelligence Reserve Unit, U.S. Coast Guard on Monday, 21 November 1960 at 2000 hours in Room 4211, Coast Guard Headquarters, 13th and "E" Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. on the general subject, "International Communism."

The Reserve Unit of which I am the training officer meets regularly each Monday night. It has an enrollment of 25 officers commanded by Rear Admiral Kenneth S. Harrison, USCGR. Admiral Harrison, as a civilian is Chief Counsel, U.S. Coast Guard. The majority of the reserve officers hold the rank of Commander. All members have legal or intelligence designations and all have Coast Guard security clearance through secret. The talk and the question period would be classified secret.

STATINTL

[ ] has been briefed on the circumstances incident to the presentation.
